WHAT SETS US APART: ETHICAL STANDARDS

We're proud members of the Independent Book Publishers Association (IBPA) We adhere to IBPA's ethical standards in publishing and are committed to ensuring authors receive the very best benefits indie publishing has to offer.

AWARD-WINNING DESIGN

Visually stunning books that stand out in any market

AUTHOR/PUBLISHER PARTNERSHIP

One-on-one collaboration throughout your entire journey.

We also provide full transparency on all aspects of production including cost.

SPEED TO MARKET

8-16 weeks vs. 2+ years with traditional publishers

PROVEN TRACK RECORD

Award-winning titles across all genres and age groups

WHAT SETS US APART: ROYALTIES

We exceed hybrid publishing industry standards.

We believe authors deserve the lion's share of their book's earnings.

IBPA CODE OF ETHICS:

When an author makes a personal investment (as is common in the hybrid model), the publisher must pay a "higher-than-standard" royalty in exchange. ...this means the author's royalty should be greater than 50% of net on both print and digital books.

BROOKLYN WRITERS PRESS & AVANTHAM:

We don't just meet the standard—we exceed it!

Our authors retain:

- 90% net print royalties
- 80% net digital royalties
